

Another Distribution on the Tea Estate

In mid-September, Lily and her family carried many food parcels to distribute to the remaining families on the tea estate in Puttelawa. This was arranged by the priest of the Hindu Temple in the village. With this donation, we began packing the dry rations in reusable bags, rather than thin plastic bags. These were purchased from a supermarket, but the manager of the local store was so impressed with the idea of protecting the environment in this way that he has adopted the practice himself with sturdy, generic, non-branded bags.

In the midst of the ever-worsening crisis in Sri Lanka, these distributions of much needed food to destitute families are made possible by the many generous donations from our supporters. We share merit with all of them.

May all beings be happy!
