

Water and Education for Life to Villages and Refugees

After the devastating flood in Myanmar last year, caused by typhoon Yagi, Buddhist Relief Mission made an appeal for emergency food relief and for the installation of a water-purification station in a Shan village. The response was overwhelming. We are pleased to report that the station has been completed and is producing pure and clean drinking water for the villagers. All the equipment is powered by solar panels which produce clean and green electricity. We hope that more such stations can be built, not only in Myanmar, but in poor villages and refugee camps around the world, wherever clean drinking water, so essential for a healthy life, is lacking.

There are more than one million Rohingya refugees from Myanmar in crowded camps in Cox's Bazar, Bangladesh. Recently, Buddhist Relief Mission sent a donation for installing a handpump for water. We also sent funds for food and school supplies for some of the orphan children and to cover the hospital fees for a teacher who was critically ill. We are pleased to learn that the teacher has completely recovered and has returned to the school. This month, we hope to send a donation to help provide children with Iftar, food for breaking the fast of Ramadan, which continues until the end of March.

Your donations will help Buddhist Relief Mission to carry out programs such as these, as well as to provide food, medicine, and other essentials to families, students, schools, monasteries, hospitals, and other institutions in Sri Lanka during this economic crisis. Thank you for your generous support!
